

How much can a locker store

What is a 5x5 storage locker?

Storage lockers with reduced height and rolling stair access are more compact versions of our standard 5x5 storage units. They offer 25 square feet of storage space but with a lower ceiling, and they can be a cost-effective self storage option for those with smaller needs.

Are lockers a good choice?

Lockers are suitable for strong small boxes, clothing and similar items that do not require tall ceilings, as locker sizes and shapes vary, and some may have lower ceiling height than a typical self-storage unit. When you need some extra room in your home or garage, our locker spaces have you covered for both temporary and long-term storage needs.

How big should a storage unit be?

According to the Move.org storage unit size guide, anything over 10 feet long or wider rules out a small unit, while items over 15 feet bump you from a medium- to a large-sized unit. You can read all the storage unit guides in the world, but nothing's as good as the real thing. Take an hour to visit a nearby storage facility.

How many bedrooms can a 10x10 storage unit hold?

A 10'x10' self storage unit can hold the contents of a two bedroom apartment. It is about the space of a large family room, or two extra bedrooms. A 10'x15' self storage unit can fit the contents of two to three full bedrooms, a couple larger items, and several medium to large-sized boxes.
